1. The below image is the default screen for the copiers when they are not in use. To login, enter the copy code you purchased into both the “User Name” and “Password” fields. When finished, press Login.
2. Once you have logged in, the options shown below will then be available for use. When you are finished, press “Log Out”.